PACIFIC AVIATION MUSEUM
PEARL HARBOR
FORD ISLAND, HAWAII

It all began here, on December 7, 1941.

Visit historic Ford Island, the epicenter of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

Japanese Mitsubishi
A6M2 Zero

The journey back in history begins at Pearl Harbor Naval Air Station on historic Ford Island in the hangars that survived the Japanese attack on December 7, 1941. Our military veteran docents take you on a visual, verbal and often moving tour of vintage aircraft and displays as they share intriguing stories of WWII battles and aviation history. Educational videos and our stirring film featuring actual footage of the attack are narrated by Pearl Harbor survivors.
