Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor to Commemorate The Battle of Midway, June 7, 2014

Honolulu, HI – Marking the 72nd Anniversary of the turning point of WWII, Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor will present a special program featuring Curator and Author Burl Burlingame and Museum's Restoration Manager Jim Martinelli on June 7, 2014, 2 to 4pm.

Presentation will begin at 2pm in the Museum Theater, followed by an audience question and answer session. Mr. Burlingame will present a talk entitled "Flying Fortresses Over Midway." The Boeing B-17 played an important roll in The Battle of Midway. Following the Q & A session, the audience will be invited out to Hangar 79 for a special presentation and behind-the-scenes look at the restoration progress of the Museum's Boeing B-17E Flying Fortress—the famous "Swamp Ghost," by Mr. Martinelli.

The event is free with regular Museum admission and free to Museum Members. Call (808) 441-1000 or visit www.PacificAviationMuseum.org for more information.

Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor is a 501(c) (3) non-profit organization, which depends on membership and donations for support. A Smithsonian Affiliate Museum, it is rated one of the top 10 aviation attractions nationally by TripAdvisor®. It is located at 319 Lexington Boulevard, Historic Ford Island, Pearl Harbor, Oahu, Honolulu, Hawaii 96818.
