

Group Members:

_____ / _____

_____ / _____

Date of Visit: _____

Summarize what happened during the Decision Center (1 paragraph):

What were two decisions or choices you had to make in the simulation?

1.

2.

List and described two or more things that worked well for your group during the Decision Center.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe two or more things that did NOT work well in your group

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe at least two recommendations you would make for handling the situation better in the future.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

Group Members:

Date of Visit: _____

Summarize what happened during the Decision Center (1 paragraph):

What were two decisions or choices you had to make in the simulation?

1.

2.

List and described two or more things that worked well for your group during the Decision Center.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe two or more things that did NOT work well in your group

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe at least two recommendations you would make for handling the situation better in the future.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

Group Members:

_____ / _____

_____ / _____

Date of Visit: _____

Summarize what happened during the Decision Center (1 paragraph):

What were two decisions or choices you had to make in the simulation?

1.

2.

List and described two or more things that worked well for your group during the Decision Center.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe two or more things that did NOT work well in your group

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe at least two recommendations you would make for handling the situation better in the future.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

Group Members:

_____ / _____

_____ / _____

Date of Visit: _____

Summarize what happened during the Decision Center (1 paragraph):

What were two decisions or choices you had to make in the simulation?

1.

2.

List and described two or more things that worked well for your group during the Decision Center.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe two or more things that did NOT work well in your group

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe at least two recommendations you would make for handling the situation better in the future.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

Group Members:

_____ / _____

_____ / _____

Date of Visit: _____

Summarize what happened during the Decision Center (1 paragraph):

What were two decisions or choices you had to make in the simulation?

1.

2.

List and described two or more things that worked well for your group during the Decision Center.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe two or more things that did NOT work well in your group

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe at least two recommendations you would make for handling the situation better in the future.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

Tonga Group Members:

Date of Visit: _____

Summarize what happened during the Decision Center (1 paragraph):

What were two decisions or choices you had to make in the simulation?

1.

2.

List and described two or more things that worked well for your group during the Decision Center.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe two or more things that did NOT work well in your group

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe at least two recommendations you would make for handling the situation better in the future.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

American Samoa Group Members:

Date of Visit: _____

Summarize what happened during the Decision Center (1 paragraph):

What were two decisions or choices you had to make in the simulation?

1.

2.

List and described two or more things that worked well for your group during the Decision Center.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe two or more things that did NOT work well in your group

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe at least two recommendations you would make for handling the situation better in the future.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

French Polynesia Group Members:

Date of Visit: _____

Summarize what happened during the Decision Center (1 paragraph):

What were two decisions or choices you had to make in the simulation?

1.

2.

List and described two or more things that worked well for your group during the Decision Center.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe two or more things that did NOT work well in your group

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe at least two recommendations you would make for handling the situation better in the future.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

Samoa Group Members:

Date of Visit: _____

Summarize what happened during the Decision Center (1 paragraph):

What were two decisions or choices you had to make in the simulation?

1.

2.

List and described two or more things that worked well for your group during the Decision Center.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe two or more things that did NOT work well in your group

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe at least two recommendations you would make for handling the situation better in the future.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

New Caledonia Group Members:

_____ , _____

Date of Visit: _____

Summarize what happened during the Decision Center (1 paragraph):

What were two decisions or choices you had to make in the simulation?

1.

2.

List and described two or more things that worked well for your group during the Decision Center.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe two or more things that did NOT work well in your group

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

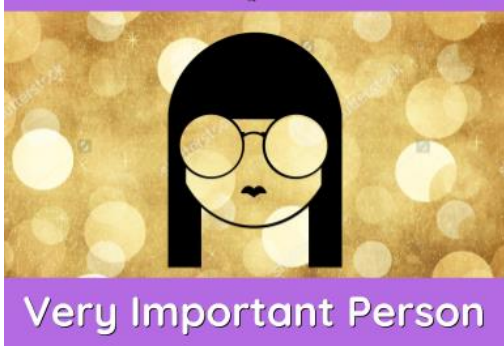

2.

List and describe at least two recommendations you would make for handling the situation better in the future.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to each other, how you shared information with each other or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

| Role/Name | |
|---------------|--|
| _____ / _____ | |
| _____ / _____ | |
| _____ / _____ | |
| _____ / _____ | |

Summarize what happened during the Decision Center (1 paragraph):

What were two decisions or choices that a VIP had to make in the simulation?

1.

2.

List and described two or more things that worked well for you during the Decision Center.

(Examples may include the way you talked to others, how you shared information with others or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe two or more things that did NOT work well for the VIPs.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to other players, how you shared information with others or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.

List and describe at least two recommendations you would make for handling the situation better in the future.

(Examples may include the way your group talked to others, how you shared information with others or analysis of decisions you made)

1.

2.